

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

Peak Rare Earths Limited (ACN 112 546 700) (Company) is committed to conducting all of its business activities fairly, honestly with integrity, and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. Its board, management and employees are dedicated to high ethical standards and recognise and support the Company's commitment to compliance with these standards.

The Company has adopted this Whistle-blower Policy to:

- (a) encourage and support people to feel confident to speak up safely and securely if they become aware of wrong-doing or illegal or improper conduct within the Company;
- (b) provide information and guidance on how to report such conduct, how reports will be handled and investigated in a timely manner and the support and protections available if a report is made;
- (c) set out the responsibilities of the Company and its management in upholding the Company's commitment to reporting any illegal, unethical or improper conduct; and
- (d) promote ethical behaviour and a culture of speaking up to deter wrong-doing.

This Whistle-blower Policy is in compliance with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations – 4th Edition as well as industry standards and the Company's legal and regulatory obligations.

This Whistle-blower Policy applies globally. To the extent that laws and regulations in any country are more rigorous or restrictive than this Whistle-blower Policy, those laws and regulations should be followed by any subsidiary operating in that country. Where a country has specific whistle-blower laws which are less rigorous than this Whistle-blower Policy, this Whistle-blower Policy prevails. The Company may, from time to time, provide country-specific directions for subsidiaries operating in countries outside of Australia.

In this Whistle-blower Policy, references to the Company includes references to the Company and all of its subsidiaries.

DEFINITIONS

In this Whistle-blower Policy the following words or phrases mean the following:

AFP means the Australian Federal Police.

APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority.

ASIC means the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

Commissioner means the Commissioner of Taxation.

Corporations Act means the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

Discloser means a person disclosing a Reportable Matter under this Whistle-blower Policy and includes an individual who is, or has been, one of the following in relation to the entity:

- (a) an officer or employee of the Company (and includes current and former employees who are permanent, part-time, fixed term or temporary, interns, secondees, managers and directors);
- (b) a supplier of services or goods to the entity (whether paid or unpaid), including their employees (and includes current and former contractors, consultants, service providers and business partners);

- (c) an associate of the Company, or a relative or dependant of one of the above (or of their spouse).

Personnel means all persons (whether authorised or unauthorised) acting on behalf of the Company at all levels, including officers, directors, temporary staff, contractors, consultants and employees of the Company, as the context requires.

Recipient has the meaning set out in clause 6.2 (a)

Reportable Matter has the meaning set out in clause 6.1

Taxation Act means the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth).

WHO THE WHISTLE-BLOWER POLICY APPLIES TO

- (a) The Company requires all Personnel to comply with this Whistle-blower Policy and any applicable whistle-blower laws and regulations, including the provisions under the Corporations Act and Taxation Act.
- (b) The Whistle-blower Policy applies to all Disclosers of Reportable Matters. However, additional disclosures may be protected under other legislation.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR COMPLIANCE AND TRAINING

- (a) The Company's board of directors (Board) is responsible for the overall administration of this Whistle-blower Policy. The Board will monitor the implementation of this Whistle-blower Policy and will review on an ongoing basis its suitability and effectiveness. Internal control systems and procedures will be audited periodically to ensure that they are effective in minimising the risk of non-compliance with this Whistle-blower Policy.
- (b) The Board may appoint a Whistle-blower Protection Officer who will be responsible for:
- i. protecting Disclosers and applying this Whistle-blower Policy and any divisional or business unit whistle-blower policy;
 - ii. monitoring the effectiveness of relevant policies and reporting to the Board accordingly; and
 - iii. ensuring compliance with whistle-blower training and programs.
- (c) The Board may appoint a Whistle-blower Investigating Officer who will be responsible for:
- i. investigating reports made under this Whistle-blower Policy and any divisional or business unit whistle-blower policy; and
 - ii. reporting to the Board or a Committee of the Board.
- (d) In addition to the Board and the Whistle-blower Protection Officer (if any), each of the Company's subsidiaries outside Australia may have designated executives responsible for monitoring and applying this Whistle-blower Policy.
- (e) A copy of this Whistle-blower Policy will be made available on the Company's website and intranet (if applicable) and in such other ways as will ensure the Whistle-blower Policy is available to those wishing to use it.

- (f) All Personnel are required to understand and comply with this Whistle-blower Policy and to follow the reporting requirements set out in this Whistle-blower Policy. To this end, regular and appropriate training on how to comply with this Whistle-blower Policy will be provided to all Personnel (including recipients and potential investigators and those with specific responsibility under this Whistle-blower Policy) to ensure everyone is aware of their rights and obligations under this Whistle-blower Policy and under applicable whistle- blower laws. However, it is the responsibility of all Personnel to ensure that they read, understand and comply with this Whistle-blower Policy.

CONSEQUENCES OF BREACHING THIS WHISTLE-BLOWER POLICY

- (a) A breach of this Whistle-blower Policy may expose Personnel and the Company to damage, including but not limited to criminal and/or civil penalties, substantial fines, loss of business and reputational damage.
- (b) A breach of this Whistle-blower Policy by Personnel will be regarded as a serious misconduct, leading to disciplinary action which may include termination of employment.

WHISTLE-BLOWER POLICY

REPORTABLE MATTERS

Personnel are encouraged to speak up and report Reportable Matters under this Whistle- blower Policy to a Recipient listed in section 6.2 (a)

What are Reportable Matters
Reportable Matters involve any actual or suspected misconduct or an improper state of affairs in relation to the Company or a related board corporate or an officer or employee of the Company. You must have reasonable grounds for reporting such conduct but you should speak up even if you are unsure if something is a Reportable Matter.	Reportable Matters may or may not include a breach of law or information that indicates a danger to the public or to the financial system. Examples of Reportable Matters include, but are not limited to, conduct which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) is dishonest, fraudulent, corrupt or involves bribery or any other activity in breach of the Company’s Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy; (b) is illegal (such as theft, dealing in or use of illicit drugs, violence or threatened violence and criminal damage to property) or involves criminal conduct or other breaches of law or regulatory requirements; (c) is unethical or breaches any of the Company’s policies, charters or Code of Conduct; (d) is potentially harmful or damaging to the Company, an employee or person, such as unsafe work practices, environmental damage, or substantial wasting of Company resources;

Reportable Matters do not generally include personal work-related grievances. Personal work-related grievances are those that relate to current or former employment and have, or tend to have, implications for the Discloser personally but do not have any other significant implications for the Company (or any other entity) or do not relate to conduct or alleged conduct, about a Reportable Matter. Personnel can discuss personal work-related grievances with their supervisor or the Chief Executive Officer. Alternatively, Personnel may wish to seek legal advice about their rights and protections under employment law and ways to resolve personal work-related grievances. However, in some cases, these grievances may qualify for legal protection (See Annexure 1).	(e) may cause financial loss or damage in any way to the Company’s reputation or be otherwise detrimental to the Company’s interest; (f) involves actual or threatened harassment, discrimination, victimisation or bullying, or any other type of detrimental action (other than disclosures that solely relate to personal work-related grievances as defined in the Corporations Act); or amounts to an abuse of authority. Examples of personal work-related grievances include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) an interpersonal conflict between the Discloser and another employee; and (b) a decision that does not involve a breach of workplace laws; (c) a decision concerning the engagement, transfer or promotion of the Discloser; (d) a decision concerning the terms and conditions of engagement of the Discloser; or a decision to suspend or terminate the engagement of the Discloser, or otherwise to discipline the Discloser

MAKING A REPORT

Who to report to?

- (a) The Company encourages reports of Reportable Matters to be made to any of the following recipients (as appropriate in the circumstances) (Recipients):
- i. to any Whistle-blower Protection Officer;
 - ii. to the relevant supervisor, senior manager or officer in the Company who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part of, the business of the Company, or who has the capacity to affect significantly the Company’s financial standing;
 - iii. to the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee;
 - iv. any member of the Board; or
 - v. the Company Secretary.

The contact details of the Recipients can be found on the Company’s intranet (if applicable). Reports can be made by email, telephone and in person.

The Company recognises that there may be issues of sensitivity whereby a Discloser does not feel comfortable to make a report to an internal recipient. In such cases, the Discloser may feel more comfortable making an anonymous disclosure to an external recipient.

Nothing in this Whistle-blower Policy (including anonymous reporting) should be taken in any way as restricting someone from reporting any matter or providing any information to a regulator (such as ASIC, the APRA, Commissioner), the Company's auditor or a member of the audit team, a lawyer (to obtain advice or representation) or any other person in accordance with any relevant law, regulation, or other requirement. Information in relation to whistleblowing is available from such regulators and can generally be downloaded on their website.

(b) Anonymous reports

The Company also appreciates that speaking up can be difficult. Reports can also be made anonymously or using a pseudonym and still be protected. A Discloser can refuse to answer questions that could reveal their identity. While reports can be made anonymously, it may affect the ability to investigate the matter properly and to communicate with the Discloser about the report. Anonymous Disclosers should therefore attempt to maintain two-way communication as far as possible.

Anonymous reports can be made by sending an anonymous email using a temporary or disposable email address available from the internet.

(c) Information to include in the report

As much information should be included in the report as possible including details of the Reportable Matter, people involved, dates, locations and whether more evidence may exist.

Disclosers will be expected to have reasonable grounds to believe the information being disclosed is true (which will be based on the objective reasonableness of the reasons for the Discloser's suspicions) but the Discloser will not be penalised and may still qualify for protection if the information turns out to be incorrect should they have such reasonable grounds. However, any deliberate false reporting will not qualify for protection under this Whistle-blower Policy and will be treated as a serious matter and may be subject to disciplinary action.

(d) Questions

Personnel who are unsure about how this Whistle-blower Policy works, what is covered by the Whistle-blower Policy or how a disclosure may be handled are encouraged to speak with their supervisor in the first instance.

INVESTIGATING A REPORT

(a) WHO WILL INVESTIGATE

An appropriate investigator (or investigators) may be appointed to investigate any reports made under this Whistle-blower Policy. An investigator will be independent of the Discloser and individuals who are the subject of the disclosure and the department or business unit involved. Possible investigators include:

- i. any Whistle-blower Investigating Officer;
- ii. any Whistle-blower Protection Officer;

- iii. a relevant supervisor, senior manager or officer in the Company who makes,
- iv. or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part of, the business of the Company, or who has the capacity to affect significantly the Company's financial standing;
- v. the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee;
- vi. any member of the Board;
- vii. the Company Secretary; or
- viii. an independent adviser.

Where a Reportable Matter relates to the managing director, Chief Executive Officer, any Whistle-blower Protection Officer, any Whistle-blower Investigating Officer or a director of the Company, the matter will be referred directly to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee or other appropriate person.

(b) How will the investigation be conducted?

Any matters reported under this Whistle-blower Policy will be considered and a determination will be made as to whether the disclosure falls within the scope of this Whistle-blower Policy. If so, the matter will be investigated as soon as practicable after the matter has been reported. The investigation process will be conducted in a thorough, fair, objective and independent manner (while preserving confidentiality) and will depend on the precise nature of the conduct being investigated. Due care and appropriate speed will be taken and reported information will be verified and relevant personnel interviewed as part of the investigative process. The Company may seek independent advice as necessary.

The Discloser may be asked for further information, will be given regular and appropriate updates in the circumstances, and will be advised of any outcomes from the investigation (subject to considerations of privacy and confidentiality). Any updates or outcomes will be advised by reasonable means.

Anonymous reports will be investigated based on the information provided and may be limited if the Discloser has refused or omitted to provide contact details.

At the end of the investigation, the relevant investigating officer will report their findings to the Chairman of the Audit and Risk committee/Chairman who will determine the appropriate response. This may include rectifying any unacceptable conduct and taking any action required to prevent future occurrences of the same or similar conduct as well as disciplinary action if necessary. The identity of the Discloser will be redacted from any written investigation reports unless they have consented to disclosure of their identity.

The Discloser may lodge a complaint with a regulator if they are not happy with an outcome of the investigation or if they consider that this Whistle-blower Policy has not been adhered to adequately.

SUPPORT AND PROTECTIONS

(a) Identity Protection (Confidentiality) for Disclosers

The identity of and information likely to lead to the identification of a Discloser will be kept confidential, however a disclosure can be made:

- i. if the Discloser consents;
- ii. to ASIC, APRA, the Commissioner or a member of the AFP;

- iii. to a lawyer for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation; or
- iv. if the disclosure is allowed or required by law.

During the course of an investigation, the Company will take reasonable steps to reduce the risk of disclosing information that could identify the Discloser (including redacting all personal information or references to the Discloser, restricting the number of people involved in handling and investigating the disclosure and ensuring secure and confidential email communication in relation to the investigation). Note however, that in practice, people may be able to guess the Discloser's identity if the Discloser has mentioned their intention to make a disclosure; the Discloser is one of a very small number of people with access to the information; or the disclosure relates to information that a Discloser has previously been told privately and in confidence.

Unauthorised disclosure of:

- i. the identity of a Discloser who has made a report of a Reportable Matter; or
- ii. information from which the identity of the Discloser could be inferred, may be an offence under Australian law, will be regarded as a disciplinary matter and will be dealt with in accordance with the Company's disciplinary procedures.

A Discloser may lodge a complaint about a breach of confidentiality with the Company or a regulator.

(b) Protection from detriment for Disclosers

A Discloser who makes a report under this Whistle-blower Policy shall not suffer detriment (either actual or threatened). Examples of actual or threatened detriment include:

- i. harassment, intimidation, victimisation, bias or discrimination;
- ii. dismissal of an employee or varying an employee's position or duties;
- iii. causing physical or psychological harm or injury; or
- iv. damage to a person's property, reputation, business or financial position or any other damage.

Certain actions will not constitute detrimental conduct such as:

- i. administrative action that is reasonable for the purpose of protecting a Discloser from detriment (eg moving a Discloser who has made a disclosure about their immediate work area to another area to prevent them from detriment); and
- ii. managing a Discloser's unsatisfactory work performance, if the action is in line with the Company's performance management framework.

The Company will take all steps to protect Disclosers from any form of detrimental treatment and may ensure that a risk assessment is carried out to determine the risk of detriment.

Anyone who retaliates against someone who has reported a possible violation may be subject to discipline by the Company or penalties under the Corporations Act, Taxation Act or other Australian law.

Anyone who is subjected to detriment as a result of making a report under this Whistle-blower Policy should report it in accordance with clause 6.2 of this Whistle-blower Policy.

A Discloser (or any other employee or person) can seek compensation or other remedies through the courts if:

- i. they suffer loss, damage or injury because of a disclosure; and

- ii. the Company failed to prevent a person from causing the detriment.

A Discloser may seek independent legal advice or contact a regulatory body if they believe they have suffered detriment.

(c) Other protections available to Disclosers

Additional protections will be offered by the Company depending on the Reportable Matter and the people involved. Protections may include but are not limited to:

- i. monitoring and managing behaviour of other employees;
- ii. offering support services (including counselling or other professional or legal services);
- iii. implementing strategies to help minimise and manage stress; time or performance impacts; or other challenges resulting from the disclosure or the investigation;
- iv. relocating employees to a different group or office or to another role or making modifications to the employee's workplace or the way they perform their duties;
- v. offering a leave of absence or flexible workplace arrangements during the course of an investigation; or
- vi. rectifying any detriment suffered.

In addition, current and former employees may also request additional support from their supervisor or any Whistle-blower Protection Officer if required.

Whilst the Company will endeavour to support all Disclosers, it will not be able to provide the same sort of practical support to each Discloser. Therefore, the processes in this Whistle-blower Policy will be adapted and applied to the extent reasonably possible.

(d) Fair treatment of those mentioned in a disclosure

The Company will ensure fair treatment of officers and employees of the Company who are mentioned in any disclosure, and to whom any disclosures relate. The disclosure will be handled confidentially and will be assessed and may be subject to investigation. If an investigation is required, it will be conducted in an objective, fair and independent manner. Such employees will be advised of the subject matter of the disclosure at the appropriate time and as required by law and will be advised of the outcome of the investigation. An employee who is the subject of a disclosure may contact the Company's support services.

(e) Files and records

The Company will ensure that any records relating to any reports made under this Whistle-blower Policy are stored securely and only accessed by authorised personnel directly involved in managing and investigating the report. All those involved in handling and investigating reports will be reminded about confidentiality requirements including that an unauthorised disclosure of a Discloser's identity may be a criminal offence.

(f) Special legal protections under the Corporations Act and the Taxation Act

Whilst this Whistle-blower Policy deals with internal disclosures of information, additional legal protections are available for certain Disclosers under the Corporations Act and the Taxation Act provided the disclosure is about a "disclosable matter" or "tax affair" as defined under such legislation certain conditions are met. These are summarised in Annexures 1 and 2 respectively. Disclosures that are not about “disclosable matters” or “tax affairs” will not qualify for protection under the Corporations Act or Taxation Act. For more information, see the information available on the ASIC website and the ATO website.

MONITORING AND REVIEW

- (a) Material incidences reported under this Whistle-blower Policy will be reported to the Board or a committee of the Board.
- (b) The Board, in conjunction with any Whistle-blower Protection Officer will monitor the content, effectiveness and implementation of this Whistle-blower Policy on a periodic basis. There may also be independent reviews taken from time to time. Any findings, updates or improvements identified will be addressed as soon as possible and circulated to all officers and employees
- (c) Officers and employees are invited to comment on this Whistle-blower Policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved. Comments, suggestions and queries should be addressed to the Board.

ANNEXURE 1 – SUMMARY OF PROTECTIONS UNDER THE CORPORATIONS ACT

The Corporations Act sets out disclosures that are protected under the Corporations Act if certain conditions are met as well as the protections available to protected disclosures. A summary of such protections (as at the date of this policy) is set out below but you should refer to the Corporations Act itself for a full understanding of the conditions and protections available and the relevant definitions. You can also visit the ASIC website for more information.

PROTECTED DISCLOSURES

Disclosures will be protected if:

- (a) the discloser is an Eligible Whistle-blower, being an individual who is, or has been, any of the following:
 - i. an officer or employee of the Company (eg current and former employees who are permanent, part-time, fixed-term or temporary, interns, secondees, managers and directors);
 - ii. an individual who supplies services or goods to the Company (whether paid or unpaid) or an employee of a person that supplies goods or services to the Company (eg current and former contractors, consultants, service providers and business partners);
 - iii. an associate of the Company;
 - iv. a relative, dependant or dependant of the spouse of any individual referred to at i to iii above; or
 - v. any prescribed individual under the Corporations Act;

- (b) and the disclosure is made to:
 - i. the ASIC, APRA or a prescribed Commonwealth authority; or
 - ii. an Eligible Recipient, being:
 - A. an officer or senior manager of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company;
 - B. an auditor (or a member of the audit team) of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company;
 - C. an actuary of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company;
 - D. a person authorised by the Company to receive disclosures that qualify for protection under the Corporations Act;
 - E. anyone prescribed under the regulations as being an eligible recipient;or
 - iii. a legal practitioner for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the whistle-blower provisions in the Corporations Act (even in the event such legal practitioner concludes that a disclosure does not relate to a disclosable matter under the Corporations Act);

- (c) and the disclosure relates to a Disclosable Matter in that the discloser has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information concerns misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances in relation to the Company or a related body corporate of the Company. This includes any suspicion that the Company or its body corporate, or an officer or employee of the Company or its body corporate has engaged in conduct that:
- i. constitutes an offence against, or a contravention of, a provision of the Corporations Act, the Australian Securities Investments Commission Act 2001, the Banking Act 1959, the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001, the Insurance Act 1973, the Life Insurance Act 1995, the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009, the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, or an instrument made under any such Act; or
 - ii. constitutes an offence against any other law of the Commonwealth of Australia that is punishable by imprisonment for a period of 12 months or more; or
 - iii. represents a danger to the public of the financial system; or
 - iv. is prescribed by regulation.

(Note that the term “misconduct” is defined in the Corporations Act to include fraud, negligence, default, breach of trust and breach of duty.)

(d) Public interest and Emergency Disclosures

Emergency or public interest disclosures (as defined under the Corporations Act) will also be protected if made to Journalists or Parliamentarians (each as defined in the Corporations Act) in extreme cases (excluding tax matters) in circumstances where at least 90 days have passed since an earlier protected disclosure has been made to ASIC, APRA or another Commonwealth body without reasonable steps having been taken to address the misconduct, or there will be substantial and imminent danger to someone’s health or safety. Note that before such public interest disclosure is made, the discloser must have given written notice to the relevant regulatory body. Such notice must include sufficient information to identify the previous disclosure and must state that the discloser intends to make the public disclosure if appropriate steps are not taken.

Disclosers are advised to contact any Whistle-blower Protection Officer or an independent legal adviser to ensure they understand the criteria for making an emergency or public interest disclosure that qualifies for protection.

(e) Personal work-related grievances

Personal work-related grievances (as defined in the Corporations Act) will not be protected to the extent that the information disclosed does not concern a contravention, or an alleged contravention, of the prohibition on victimisation under the Corporations Act that involves detriment caused to the discloser or a threat made to the discloser.

However, a personal work-related grievance will still qualify for protection if:

- i. it includes information about misconduct, or information about misconduct includes or is accompanied by a personal work-related grievance (mixed report);
- ii. the Company has breached employment or other laws punishable by imprisonment for a period of 12 months or more, engaged in conduct that represents a danger to the public, or the disclosure relates to information that suggests misconduct beyond the Discloser’s personal circumstances;

- iii. the Discloser suffers from or is threatened with detriment for making the disclosure; or
- iv. the Discloser seeks legal advice or legal representation about the operation of the whistleblower protections under the Corporations Act.

PROTECTIONS AVAILABLE

(a) Protected disclosures will be given the following protections under the Corporations Act

Protected disclosures not actionable

- i. the discloser will not be subject to any civil, criminal or administrative liability (including disciplinary action) for making the disclosure; and
- ii. no contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised against the discloser on the basis of the disclosure; and
- iii. if the disclosure qualified for protection under the Corporations Act (including public interest and emergency disclosure), the information is not admissible as evidence against the discloser in criminal proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information;

Victimisation Prohibited

Anyone who causes or threatens to cause detriment (as defined in the Corporations Act) to a discloser or another person in the belief or suspicion that a report has been made, or may have been made, proposes to or could be made, may be guilty of an offence and may be liable for damages or subject to a court order. Examples of possible court orders include, but are not limited to:

- i. requiring compensation for loss or damage;
- ii. an injunction to prevent, stop or remedy the effects of detrimental conduct;
- iii. an order requiring an apology for engaging in detrimental conduct;
- iv. if the detrimental conduct wholly or partly resulted in the termination of an employee's employment, reinstatement of their position; and
- v. any other order the court thinks appropriate.

Identifying information not to be disclosed

Subject to applicable laws:

- i. a discloser's identity cannot be disclosed to a Court or tribunal except where considered necessary; and
- ii. the person receiving the report commits an offence if they disclose the substance of the report or the discloser's identity, without the discloser's consent, to anyone except an authorised disclosure to ASIC, APRA, the AFP or a lawyer for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the report.

Costs of proceedings

A discloser may not need to pay costs of legal proceedings unless they have acted vexatiously or without reasonable cause and the unreasonable act caused the other party to incur the costs.

(b) Confidentiality

In relation to a protected disclosure, the identity of a discloser (and any information likely to lead to the identification of a discloser) must be kept confidential unless expressly authorised in writing.

A disclosure of the discloser's identity will be authorised if made:

- i. to ASIC, APRA or a member of the AFP;
- ii. to a legal practitioner for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the whistle-blower provisions in the Corporations Act;
- iii. to a person prescribed by the regulations of the Corporations Act for this purpose;
- iv. with the express written consent of the discloser; or
- v. by ASIC, APRA or a member of the AFP to a Commonwealth or State or Territory authority for the purpose of assisting the authority in the performance of its functions or duties.

However, such confidentiality does not apply where the disclosure is not the identity of the discloser and is reasonably necessary for the purposes of investigating a matter and all reasonable steps have been taken to reduce the risk that the discloser will be identified.

(c) Timing

A discloser will qualify for protection from the time they make their disclosure, regardless of whether, at this time, the discloser or recipient recognises that the disclosure qualifies for protection.

(d) No immunity from misconduct

Note that the protections do not grant immunity for any misconduct a discloser has engaged in that is revealed in their disclosure.

ANNEXURE 2 – SUMMARY OF PROTECTIONS UNDER THE TAXATION ADMINISTRATION ACT

The Taxation Act sets out disclosures that are protected under the Taxation Administration Act if certain conditions are met as well as protections available to protected disclosures. A summary of such protections (as at the date of this policy) is set out below but you should refer to the Taxation Administration Act itself for a full understanding of the conditions and protections available and the relevant definitions. You can also visit the ATO website for more information.

PROTECTED DISCLOSURES

Disclosures will be protected if:

- (a) the discloser is an Eligible Whistle-blower, being an individual who is, or has been, any of the following:
- i. an officer (within the meaning of the Corporations Act) or employee of the Company;
 - ii. an individual who supplies services or goods to the Company (whether paid or unpaid) or an employee of a person that supplies goods or services to the Company;
 - iii. an associate (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) of the Company;
 - iv. a spouse, child or dependant of any individual referred to in (i) to (ii) above or of such an individual's spouse; or
 - v. any prescribed individual under the regulations under the Taxation Act;
- (b) and the disclosure is made to:
- i. the Commissioner and the discloser consider that the information may assist the Commissioner to perform his or her functions or duties under a taxation law in relation to the Company or an associate of the Company; or
 - ii. an Eligible Recipient, being:
 - A. a director, secretary or senior manager of the Company;
 - B. an employee or officer of the Company who has functions or duties that relate to the tax affairs (within the meaning of the Taxation Act) of the Company;
 - C. the Company's auditor (or a member of that audit team);
 - D. a registered tax agent or BAS agent (within the meaning of the Tax Agent Services Act 2009) who provides tax agent services or BAS services to the Company;
 - E. a person authorised by the Company to receive disclosures that qualify for protection under the Taxation Act; or
 - F. anyone prescribed under the Taxation Act regulations as being an Eligible Recipient; and the discloser has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information indicates misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances, in relation to the tax affairs of the Company or an associate of the Company ("tax affairs" means affairs relating to any tax imposed by or under, or assessed or collected under, a law administered by the Commissioner);

and the discloser considers that the information may assist the Eligible Recipient to perform functions or duties in relation to the tax affairs of the Company or an associate of the Company; or

- iii. a legal practitioner for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the whistle-blower provisions in the Taxation Act.

PROTECTIONS AVAILABLE

Protected Disclosures will be given the following protections under the Taxation Act

Protected disclosures not actionable

- i. the discloser will not be subject to any civil, criminal or administrative liability (including disciplinary action) for making the disclosure;
- ii. no contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised against the discloser on the basis of the disclosure; and
- iii. if the disclosure was a disclosure of information to the Commissioner, the information is not admissible as evidence against the discloser in criminal proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information;

(Note that in relation to i to iii above, the discloser has qualified privilege in respect of the disclosure and a contract to which the person is a party may not be terminated on the basis that the disclosure constitutes a breach of the contract.)

Victimisation prohibited

Anyone who causes or threatens to cause detriment (as defined in the Taxation Act) to a discloser or another person in the belief or suspicion that a report has been made, or may have been made, proposes to or could be made, may be guilty of an offence and may be liable for damages or subject to a court order. Examples of possible court orders include, but are not limited to:

- i. requiring compensation for loss or damage;
- ii. an injunction to prevent, stop or remedy the effects of detrimental conduct;
- iii. an order requiring an apology for engaging in detrimental conduct;
- iv. if the detrimental conduct wholly or partly resulted in the termination of an employee's employment, reinstatement of their position; and
- v. any other order the court thinks appropriate.

Identifying information not to be disclosed

- i. a discloser's identity (or information likely to lead to the identity of the discloser) cannot be disclosed to a Court or tribunal except where considered necessary; and
- ii. the person receiving the report commits an offence if they disclose the substance of the report or the discloser's identity, without the discloser's consent, to anyone except the Commissioner, the AFP or a lawyer for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the report.

Costs of proceedings

A discloser may not need to pay the costs of legal proceedings unless they have acted vexatiously or without reasonable cause and the unreasonable act caused the other party to incur the costs.

(c) Confidentiality

In relation to a protected disclosure, the identity of a discloser (and any information likely to lead to the identification of a discloser) must be kept confidential unless authorised.

A disclosure of the discloser's identity will be authorised if made:

- i. to the Commissioner or a member of the AFP;
- ii. to a legal practitioner for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the whistle-blower provisions in the Taxation Act;
- iii. to a person prescribed by the regulations of the Taxation Act for this purpose; or
- iv. with the express written consent of the discloser.

However, such confidentiality does not apply where the disclosure is not of the identity of the discloser and is reasonably necessary for the purposes of investigating a matter and all reasonable steps have been taken to reduce the risk that the discloser will be identified.
